The Senior Class of 2026 dedicates the yearbook to… Duffy Carleton

Over the last four years, Duffy Carleton has been our custodian, but he brightens Proctor's halls with far more than his efforts to keep the school clean. His laughter, which echoes throughout the building constantly, has warmed our hearts and lifted our spirits. As we stroll through the hallways, we are almost always greeted with a cheerful "hello" and a genuine inquiry of how we have been. His jokes, smiles, and relaxed energy make our building a better place every day; and with every encounter, this school has begun to feel more like a home. Duffy reminds us that kindness is key, joy is contagious, and the smallest gestures often matter the most. Whether or not he's realized it, the Class of 2026 is forever grateful for the quick, impactful conversations we've shared with him. We hope Duffy continues to have the same impact on future classes, brightening their days the way he has brightened ours.
